

TIC TAC TOE QUIZ

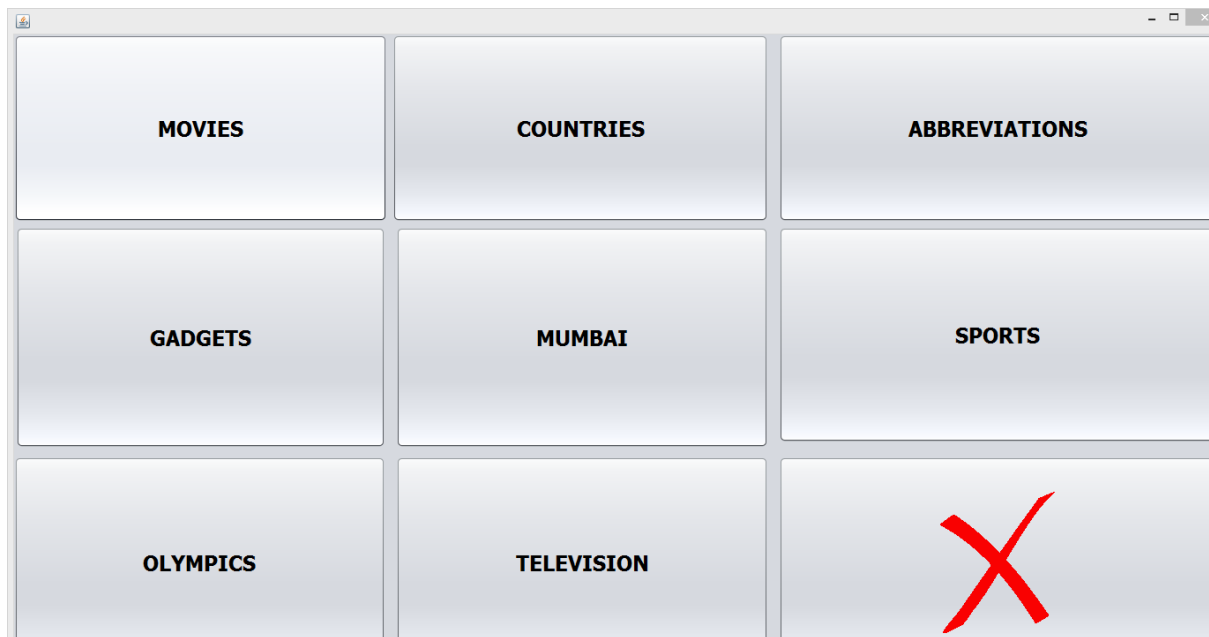

- The main screen of the application is like this with 9 grids including movies, countries, abbreviations, gadgets, mumbai, sports, olympics, television and logos

- Clicking on one of the grid, say logos, brings up a screen with a question on it. The answer can be correctly given by the X team or the O team or it could be the wrong answer

- Depending on which team gives the correct answer, the grid is replaced by an X or a 0

- This continues until the game of X and 0 is won by any one of the teams. If it is a draw, there is a tie breaker question at the end
